WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AND CENTRAL COASTAL AREAS:

Eureka Weather:

Wet and unsettled conditions are expected for much of the next week as several storms systems impact Northwest California. An atmospheric river will bring a period of heavy rainfall Friday into Saturday.

San Francisco Weather:

Unsettled conditions will persist through our area for tonight into Wednesday with showers. In addition, there is also a slight chance of thunderstorms on Wednesday. A brief drying trend is then expected for Thursday and Friday before rain chances return to the San Francisco Bay area this upcoming weekend.

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA AND SOUTHERN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY

Sacramento Weather:

Wet and cooler weather will continue through the weekend. Significant mountain snow and gusty winds are likely with possible thunderstorms in the Valley.

Hanford Weather:

A storm system will move through the region late tonight and Wednesday bringing cooler temperatures and precipitation to the central California interior through Wednesday night. A few showers lingering in the sierra Thursday otherwise dry and warmer by Friday before another weather system moves through on Saturday.

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION: (Con't)

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

Los Angeles Weather:

A weak cold front will bring chances of light precipitation to the region tonight through early Thursday. Temperatures remain cool through Thursday then will warm into the weekend. Precipitation is possible again next week.

Extreme Southwestern California Including Orange, San Diego, Western Riverside and Southwestern San Bernardino Counties:

A very stubborn and deep marine layer lingers west of the mountains this afternoon. As an upper level trough moves inland tonight the marine layer will deepen with more drizzle possible. The drizzle will turn to light showers overnight tonight and Wednesday morning. A secondary disturbance will then continue the threat of light showers through Thursday. Strong and gusty west winds will also develop in the mountains and deserts...with blowing dust and sand possible in the mountains. Dry and warmer conditions will then return for Friday and the weekend. Cooler conditions and a deeper marine layer will then return early next week as another trough moves inland along the west coast.

Southeast California Weather:

Winds are expected to increase from the south to southwest with gusts of 20-35 knots expected by late afternoon across western San Bernardino County. West winds of 30-50 knots with higher gusts are expected late this afternoon into tonight over the eastern slopes of the southern sierra and in the Owens Valley. A few showers are possible in the higher elevations late this afternoon and evening in the eastern slopes of the southern Sierra along with mountain obscurations.

National Weather Service - Sacramento, CA

A series of Pacific storm systems are lined up to impact Northern California over the next two weeks. The first pulse from the first of these systems is moving through the region today in the form of a quick moving precipitation band as indicated in the picture. The second pulse from this system arrives early tomorrow and will be the stronger, colder, and wetter of the two pulses. Expect heavy valley rain, heavy mountain snow, gusty winds, and a chance of valley thunderstorms throughout the day tomorrow. Lingering showers persist into Thursday and Friday ahead of the next approaching storm system.

CAL OES ACTIVATIONS

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

- The SOC is activated at Level 2 in support of the Drought State of Emergency from 0800-1700 hours daily.
- The Inland REOC is activated at Level 2 from 0800-1700 Monday through Friday or as needed.
- The Southern REOC is activated at Level 1.
- The Santa Barbara County OA EOC is activated at Level 2 to be handled by the duty officer for the purpose of monitoring activities and gaining situational awareness. The operational period is 0800-1700 hours.

SIGNIFICANT EVENTS / ACTIVITY

Tsunami Warning Communications Test, 03/26/14

The California Office of Emergency Services (Cal OES), in partnership with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), will conduct a test of the tsunami warning communications system on March 26.

There will be two separate and distinct tests, the first at 10:15 AM PDT, in coastal areas of central and southern California, and the second between 11 AM and noon PDT, in Northern California.

- At about 10:15 a.m. NOAA's National Weather Service Offices in Monterey, Oxnard and San Diego will broadcast the "Required Monthly Test." The test will also be broadcast on NOAA Weather Radio All Hazards, local television and radio stations. The actual Tsunami Warning Code (EAS code TSW) will not be used for this test.
- Between 11 a.m. and noon PDT in Northern California (Del Norte and Humboldt): NOAA's National Weather Service Office in Eureka will broadcast a test of the EAS system by using the actual Tsunami Warning Code (EAS code TSU). This emergency test will be broadcast on NOAA Weather Radio All Hazards, local television and radio stations in Del Norte and Humboldt counties. Residents in some communities may hear warning sirens.

SIGNIFICANT EVENTS / ACTIVITY

FEMA US&R Activation Order # 2014-0001a, 2014-FIRE-2588, Washington Mudslide Incident

SIGNIFICANT EVENTS / ACTIVITY

Coastal Region

9-1-1 Outage, Richmond PD/FD, Contra Costa County (Final)

- On 3/24/14 at 1855 hours Richmond PD/FD suffered a full power failure
 - No 9-1-1 or radio capabilities
 - Contra Costa County Sheriff's Office is currently handling Richmond's calls
 - California Utilities Emergency Association has notified Pacific Gas and Electric
 - A repair order has been initiated

Current: Power regained at approximately 2000 hours 3/24/2014. No radio communication was lost.

Situational Summary

Information as of 3/24/14

On January 17, 2014 Governor Edmund G. Brown proclaimed a State of Emergency and directed state officials to take all necessary actions to prepare for drought conditions. The State Operation Center (SOC) is activated to implement objectives in support of the Governor's priorities. The lack of winter rain and snowfall has resulted in extremely dry conditions in many parts of the State. Reservoir levels are down significantly from where they should be on average for this time of year. If conditions continue without substantial rainfall, severe impacts to municipal water supplies, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities are likely in store for the State over the next few months. Negative economic impacts will also result.

Beginning Tuesday, March 25, 2014, several storms will travel through the state that will possibly bring significant rain and snow. Precipitation is predicted to be heaviest in the far northern portion of the state.

As our state's rainy season nears its end, much of California has received only about 50% of normal precipitation for this rainy season. Heavy rain and snow would have to fall throughout California most days in April to reach average annual rain and snowfall levels, which is highly unlikely. Even with such precipitation, California would remain in drought conditions, due to low water supplies in reservoirs from the two previous dry years.

The drought could result in severe impacts to the municipal water supplies, wells, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities for several months. The SOC continues to be activated to monitor the situation statewide, and support regional and local operational areas.

Situational Summary (cont'd)

Information as of 3/24/14

- The Taskforce continues to meet regularly to take actions that conserve water and coordinate state response to the drought.
- The most recent snowpack survey, conducted on February 27, recorded California snowpack at 24% of normal. The next snowpack survey will be conducted April 1. A more recent update using automated devices shows snowpack at 24% of normal as of March 23.
- DWR has announced that water essential for health and safety will be delivered through the state water project in spite of the zero allocation policy. Deliveries will be boosted if storms produce enough rain and snow to increase reservoir storage and the snow pack.
- On March 27, 2014, SWRCB will be at the groundbreaking ceremony for the City of Visalia's $147 million Water Conservation Plant upgrade and recycled water distribution pipeline, made possible by an earlier CWA SRF loan from the State Water Board.
- Cal OES continues to gather drought-related costs from state agencies and local governments.

- 2014-LAW-2478 The 95th CST will provide area monitoring, secure communications, and WMD expertise for the NASCAR Racing Event at Sonoma Raceway June 20-22. They will assist with advanced planning and be pre-positioned prior to the start of the event.
- 2014-LAW-2450 Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Department is requesting ten Search and Rescue personnel that are EMS certified to assist with a special event. Resource will be needed from 1100 hours till Midnight on April 8, 2014. San Luis Obispo County Sheriff's Department will be responding with requested resources.
- 2014-LAW-2380 The San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department as the Regional Mutual Aid Coordinator is requesting the 9th Civil Support Team of the California National Guard for support during the running of the Auto Club Speedway's NASCAR Races to be held from Friday, March 21, 2014 through Sunday, March 23, 2014. The CNG has accepted the mission and will deploy the requested resources.

- 2014-LAW-2307 Per USFWS, The mission has been postponed to Monday, March 10, with a backup date of March 11. They will provide a disposition at the conclusion of the mission. California Department of Fish and Wildlife (DFW) has requested California Air National Guard to assist in the movement of equipment and fuel between Farallon National Wildlife Refuge and the mainland. Approximately 3-4 sorties are expected with an HH-60G helicopter any one day between 2/24-28/2014 or before 3/15/2014. After receiving the official letter of request from USFWS on behalf of the California DFW, Cal OES LDO has changed the target date of the mission to 2/27/14, the county to Marin as Stinson Beach was Identified as the primary staging area and the resource to an HH-60.
- 2014-SOC-2111 Mission is to test the Cascadia Subduction Zone (CSZ) air bridge concept by air transporting 7 passengers from OES and 1 CANG logistics planner on 13 May 2014 from Mather to the State Staging Area (SA) in Redding, to one POD in Del Norte and one POD in Humboldt, to the Redding State SA, and return to Mather. Passengers will discuss actions at the Redding SA and at each OA POD while they are at each location. The air bridge is a critical component to CSZ response and recovery. It is imperative this concept is tested to ensure response teams can be successfully transported into the effected region and the affected Operational Areas' are able to receive aircraft at designated PODs.

UPCOMING EVENTS, TRAINING, EXERCISES

Diablo Canyon Power Plant, Rehearsal / Full Scale Exercise

Diablo Canyon Power Plant in San Luis Obispo will be hosting two full scale Hostile Action Based exercises this Spring. A dress rehearsal exercise will be held on April 16, 2014 and a FEMA evaluated exercise will held on May 21, 2014. This is part of the required biennial demonstration of our ability to protect the public from a radiological incident at the nuclear power plant.
